Farooq Abdullah said- there are still problems with our neighbour
On the terrorist attacks in Jammu and Kashmir, National Conference (NC) President Dr. Farooq Abdullah said, "There are still problems with our neighbour. These problems will not be solved by military action. Unless we talk to our neighbors , We can't solve it."

He further said that terrorists are coming through the border and they will keep coming. Whatever government will be in place tomorrow, it will have to face all this. We need to get out of these circumstances. We have a big yatra (Amarnath Yatra) coming up. If any small incident happens in it, it will be publicised in the rest of the country.
